

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

7 || FRANCIE E. MOELLER, et al.,

8 Plaintiffs, No. C 02-5849 PJH

V. FINAL PRETRIAL ORDER

10 TACO BELL CORP.,

Defendant.

13 Pursuant to Rule 16(e) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, this final pretrial
14 order is hereby entered and shall control the course of the trial unless modified by a 15 subsequent order.

I. DAUBERT MOTIONS

Taco Bell's motion to exclude testimony of plaintiff's experts regarding their analysis and interpretations of the ADA Standards for Accessible Design or applicable ADA law is DENIED. Because the question of compliance with the regulations is a mixed question of fact and law, the experts from both sides will be given considerable leeway in their testimony, but may not offer a legal opinion on matters that are purely questions of law.

II. MOTIONS IN LIMINE

1. Plaintiffs' Motion in Limine No. 1 to exclude testimony from 21 witnesses that Taco Bell disclosed on March 23, 2011 is DENIED. Taco Bell shall make the witnesses available for deposition before trial, and shall provide plaintiffs with a description of each witness' job history with Taco Bell so that plaintiffs can decide which of the witnesses they wish to depose. Plaintiffs are allowed a total of 21 hours in which to depose any of these witnesses.

1       2. Plaintiffs' Motion in Limine No. 2 to exclude testimony from five witnesses that
2 Taco Bell disclosed on April 13, 2011 is GRANTED. However, these five witnesses may be
3 called for purposes of rebuttal or impeachment.

4       3. Plaintiffs' Motion in Limine No. 3 to allow class member witness Curtis Cone
5 to present her testimony by deposition is GRANTED. However, no later than May 19, 6 2011, Taco Bell must advise plaintiffs whether it wishes to further depose Ms. Cone in 7 North Carolina, and if it does, the deposition must take place before trial commences.

8       4. Plaintiffs' motion for an order shortening time to hear motion (3) above is 9 GRANTED.

10      5. Taco Bell's Motion in Limine No. 1 to exclude evidence of alleged accessibility
11 barriers at stores other than store No. 4518 is GRANTED.

12      6. Taco Bell's Motion in Limine No. 2 to exclude evidence of architectural 13 barriers not enumerated in Eric McSwain's May 9, 2009 expert report is GRANTED as 14 unopposed.

15      7. Taco Bell's Motion in Limine No. 3 to exclude evidence of "informal site visits"
16 by class members or other non-experts is DENIED.

17      8. Taco Bell's Motion in Limine No. 4 to exclude testimony of class members
18 whom plaintiffs did not make available for deposition is GRANTED in part and DENIED in 19 part. Such class members may not testify in plaintiffs' case-in-chief, but may be called as 20 rebuttal or impeachment witnesses.

21      9. Taco Bell's Motion in Limine No. 5 to exclude evidence of subsequent 22 remedial measures to prove culpable conduct is GRANTED, but such evidence is 23 admissible on other issues as permitted by the rules of evidence.

24      10. Taco Bell's Motion in Limine No. 6 to exclude legal opinions as expert 25 testimony is DENIED as stated above.

26      11. Taco Bell's Motion in Limine No. 7 to preclude relitigation of the issue of 27 standing to challenge violations of accessibility standards governing inaccessible hardware
28 and inaccessible toilet paper rollers is GRANTED as unopposed.

1       12. Taco Bell's Motion in Limine No. 8 to exclude evidence of deterrence claims is
2 GRANTED as unopposed.

3       13. Taco Bell's Motion in Limine No. 9 to exclude evidence of features not related
4 to plaintiffs' disability is GRANTED as unopposed.

5       14. Taco Bell's Motion in Limine No. 10 to exclude evidence regarding emotional
6 distress is DENIED to the extent that the evidence bears on the issue of equivalent
7 facilitation, but is GRANTED to the extent that it bears on damages.

8       II. WITNESSES

9       Neither party will be permitted to call opposing counsel as a witness to authenticate
10 documents or otherwise.

11     III. EXHIBITS

12     No documents are subject to special treatment at trial as confidential.

13     IV. DISCOVERY EXCERPTS

14     The parties shall prepare, for submission on the first day of trial, the discovery
15 designations and counter-designations in the form of one deposition transcript with each 16 sides' designations highlighted in a different color.

17     V. TRIAL SCHEDULE AND TIME LIMITS

18     The trial will commence on June 6, 2011 at 8:30 a.m. for 8 trial days excluding 19 Wednesdays. Each side will be permitted 18 hours for all examination and argument.

21 IT IS SO ORDERED.
